PROVISIONAL RECOGNITION

In order to receive full recognition in The Newman Guide, a college must have been in operation for four or more years and graduated a first class. Provisional recognition is granted to a college that does not yet meet the requirements for full recognition, but based on information provided in the Newman Guide application, The Cardinal Newman Society believes the college's standards and policies appear to meet Newman Guide criteria. The Cardinal Newman Society will conduct another evaluation of a provisionally recognized college before granting full recognition.
